Thank you Chuck. Yes, confirming that we will use this only to communicate our response to EPA's settlement offer.

We appreciate the courtesy.

Jon

Jon

As you may know, for a number of sound reasons, the Agency generally does not share Word documents anymore. However, after consulting with Linda I believe you will use the attached only to communicate Xcel's response to our settlement offer. So we are sharing it in the spirit of cooperative negotiations.

We look forward to seeing your response.

Chuck

Subject: Word Version of Draft Agreement?

Hi Chuck,

Question for you: I think it would be most helpful to return a redline of the draft agreement to you for our next discussions. We are having formatting challenges when we try to convert the existing PDF draft to Word on our end – possibly user error, but nevertheless, a problem. Our converted version ends up with stray pages and other formatting issues that make any attempt at a redline a mess. Would you be in a position to share a Word version of the draft agreement that we could work from? If not, I understand, and will have to go to Plan B.

Thanks!

Jon
